Liturgy of the Hours: Of the Solemnity Reflection on the Gospel

Christians have worked to understand and articulate the Trinity throughout the ages. Saint Augustine liked to speak of the three persons as “Lover, Beloved, and Love.” Saint Hildegard of Bingen favored “Fire, Burning, and Flashing Forth.” One might name them “Eternal Giver, Receiver, and Outburst of Joy.” There is no limit to the ways we can speak of the profound mystery of the Three-in-One. The three persons are a communion of love that interweave each other in endless patterns of saving activity.
