Corpus Christi Solemnity

READINGS

Exodus 24:3-8

Psalm 116:12-13, 15-16, 17-18

Hebrews 9:11-15

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Liturgy of the Hours: Of the Solemnity
Reflection on the Gospel

What Jesus says and does at the Last Supper is the culmination of an entire lifelong pouring out of himself in love. The words and gestures echo God’s life-sustaining self-gift to Israel in the wilderness, symbolized in manna (Exod 16:12-35), and Jesus’s feeding of the hungry multitudes during his Galilean ministry (Mark 6:30-44; 8:1-9). In Mark’s Gospel, the Last Supper is a Passover meal, recalling how the blood of lambs smeared on the doorposts kept the fleeing Israelites safe from the destroyer and opened the way to their liberation.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

IN-PEW June 2, 2024

Let us pray for the prosperity of this year’s Annual Catholic Appeal in our Parish and diocese. May the Holy Spirit inspire us with faith, prompting us to align our prayers with financial contributions. May these efforts enable us to carry out the compassionate works of Christ, such as feeding the hungry, educating the young, visiting the sick and imprisoned, welcoming the stranger, and fostering vocations to the priesthood, ensuring the perpetual celebration of the Eucharist for God’s people. We pray to the Lord.

The Office of “Faith Formation” has been created to facilitate evangelization efforts in the Parish. This office is run by Lou Perillo. If you or someone you know is interested in our RCIA Program or Adult Education, please call him at the Religious Education Dept. (347 463-5668.)

SCHOOL OF RELIGION
