Liturgy of the Hours: Of the Solemnity
Reflection on the Gospel

Liturgy of the Hours: Week II the Psalter

It is important to note that in today's gospel Jesus does not say that God will not offer forgiveness for the sin of blasphemy, but that one who does not rightly acknowledge the power of the Spirit will never have forgiveness. That is, those who refuse to open themselves to the power of the Spirit cannot experience forgiveness by their own decision not to allow in the forgiveness and healing that is offered them. All sinners, if they choose, can go home into God's welcoming arms.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Let us pray for the prosperity of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal in our Parish and diocese. May the Holy Spirit inspire us with faith, prompting us to align our prayers with financial contributions. May these efforts enable us to carry out the compassionate works of Christ, such as feeding the hungry, educating the young, visiting the sick and imprisoned, welcoming the stranger, and fostering vocations to the priesthood, ensuring the perpetual celebration of the Eucharist for God's people. We pray to the Lord.

The Office of “Faith Formation” has been created to facilitate evangelization efforts in the Parish. This office is run by Lou Perillo. If you or someone you know is interested in our RCIA Program or Adult Education, please call him at the Religious Education Dept. (347 463-5668.)

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

All children in Grades 1-7 should be attending Classes. Please contact Debbie Perillo - Coordinator of Religious Education. debbie.perillo@stedmund-brooklyn.org.
