Eleventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches
MARK 4: 31-32

READINGS

Ezekiel 17: 22-24

Psalms 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Mark 4: 26-34

Liturgy of the Hours: Of the Solemnity
Reflection on the Gospel

Liturgy of the Hours: Week III the Psalter

At the end of the mustard seed parable, Jesus says that all the birds of the sky will dwell in the shade of the mustard plant’s large branches. The image is the same as in the first reading, where Ezekiel speaks of the hoped-for messianic time when all nations would be drawn to Israel. They would be like birds of all varieties flocking to the sheltering boughs of a cedar tree. These readings give us courage that no action is too small for sowing God’s reign.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL 2024

Communion, Participation & Mission

St. Edmund Parish Goal $31,022

Once we exceed our goal we will then receive 100% of all funds raised above this figure directly back to our parish.

The contributions you make to the Annual Catholic Appeal enable a range of impactful work and services that benefit individuals and families in Brooklyn and Queens surpassing what any single parish can achieve alone. Let us fervently pray for the success of the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal, envisioning a triumph that not only enables to extend love to those in need but also unites our hearts in Communion, Participation and Mission.

Thank You!

to James Quitoni for the donated bread, statues and flowers for the Feast Day of St Anthony.

Peter's Pence Collection
Be a sign of mercy.

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, Including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works.
