Reflection on the Gospel

In today's gospel, a rich young man asks Jesus a similar question: "What must I do to inherit eternal life? He seems to be looking for a formula. He looks to Jesus as the "good teacher" to tell him what it is. Jesus doesn't tell him right away what he must do to inherit eternal life but focuses instead on the man's use of the word "good." In his way Jesus points the young man toward God's unique goodness, which is the "one thing" at the center of all.
