Reflection on the Gospel

Jesus speaks disapprovingly about any who seek displays of greatness and authority over others—apparently even in the next life. The hope of reward is not what motivates Jesus, nor should it motivate his disciples. The only “throne” that he shares with his disciples is the “throne of grace,” where one receives not honor but mercy, grace, and timely help (Heb 4:16). The wellspring for this mercy is that Jesus has himself endured all that we endure and is thus able to suffer with all those who suffer.
